

PICKET LINE PRAYER GROUP

During the first days of the strike, some of the union members that make up the in plant prayer group that meets each week, assembled across the street from the picket line and held a special prayer. They prayed for the people on strike all across America, Goodyear, the negotiating committee and the outcome of the strike. Some of the following pictures show that while the group was praying, the people walking picket stopped walking and were also praying.

